Congratulations to Matt Clear, Jack Rain, Chancel Choir, Handbells and all the musicians from Pinellas County Center for the Arts at Gibbs High who made Many Moods of Christmas 2018 a huge success. And to all the ushers, greeters and all those who worked behind the scenes. The music was extraordinary as were the standing-room-only crowds. The greatest news in all is that nearly $13,000 was raised for the St. Pete Free Clinic.

A Giant Leap Forward in Social Media

FPC has a new website! And we are now on Twitter, Instagram and Facebook!!! Check us out!!

- Website - fpcstpete.com
- Twitter - #fpcstpete
- Instagram - fpcstpete
- Facebook - First Presbyterian Church St. Petersburg

What you can do:

1. Check out the website.
2. Follow #fpcstpete on Twitter
3. Follow fpcstpete on Instagram
4. Like and Follow our First Pres page on Facebook

Links to all of these are provided at the bottom of this page in the purple box each week.

Our new social media presence has a consistency (fpcstpete). Our new website has lots and lots of pictures people in ministry. These are the tools that people often access before attending a new church. We hope you will use them too.

Special thanks to the Website Redesign Subcommittee : Diedra Flora, Moderator, Adam Higman, Bryan Bardin, Rhonda Holifield, Kyle Brinkman, Margie Richmond and Ashley Davis.

Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs)

Have You Ever Considered Making a Charitable Gift From Your IRA?

If you are over the age of 70 1/2, perhaps you should!

Here is a tax-savvy strategy that allows you to transfer up to $100,000 per year from your traditional IRA directly to qualified charities, such as your church.
